

Aboriginal Justice Dialogue Sessions 2015

Questions for Small Group Discussions

Participants at the dialogue session will be divided into small groups, and receive a set of questions for discussion. After the small groups have discussed their questions, each one will report out to the larger group and there will be an opportunity for the larger group to engage in dialogue about those questions.

Group 1

1. What are the challenges that Aboriginal peoples in your community face when they need legal help?
 2. What do you see as the biggest challenge?

Group 2

1. What is your perception of the legal needs for Aboriginal people in BC?
 2. Are there needs in your community that are unique from other Aboriginal communities?

Group 3

1. What solutions or suggestions do you have for LSS to create better outcomes for Aboriginal peoples?
 2. What workshops or training activities would assist you to better serve Aboriginal peoples in your community, and why?

Group 4

1. How can we increase communications to rural and remote areas to increase their access to legal aid and other community resources?
2. How can we increase communications to rural and remote areas to let them know about our legal services and publications?
3. Who should we engage with – and how and where – to get community feedback about what legal publications and resources are needed?
